

Report on International Women’s Day Event: "Celebrating Women: Voices of Empowerment"

Title: The International Women’s Day

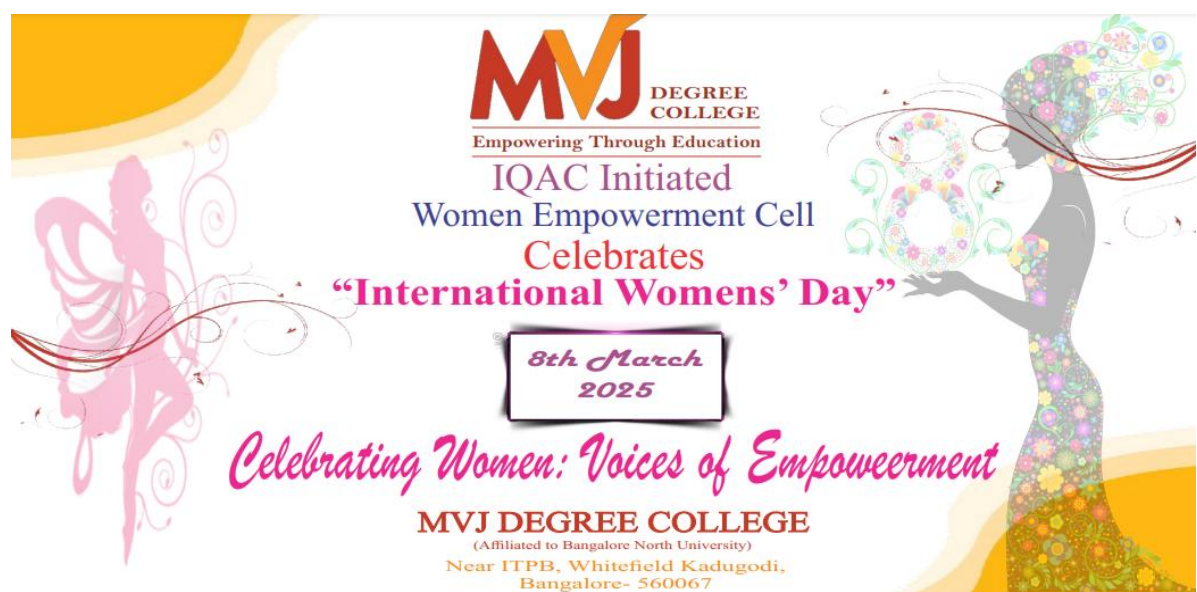

Date & Day: 8th March 2025, Saturday

Time: 9.30 am to 10.30 am

Venue: Seminar Hall 4

Total no of Audience: 110 students & 10 faculties

Objective - The International Women’s Day event titled "Celebrating Women: Voices of Empowerment" celebrated on 8th March,2025 in Seminar Hall 4 on Saturday aims to reflect on the importance of gender equality, celebrate women’s achievements, and inspire action towards empowering women. The event is organized by the Women Empowerment Cell at MVJ Degree College, with the theme "Accelerate Action." The script is designed to guide the event smoothly, ensuring each segment flows seamlessly and the key message of empowerment is effectively conveyed. The event includes speeches, a performance, and closing remarks, engaging both the speakers and the audience in a collaborative celebration of women.

(Principal wishes to female faculty with bouquet of flower & chocolates)

The Women's Day celebration began with the principal presenting bouquets of flowers and chocolates to the female faculty members, followed by a photo session and the distribution of well wishes for a Happy Women's Day.

Opening – Introduction (Emcee's Welcome):

1. The Emcee warmly welcomes the audience, setting a positive tone for the event and explaining its purpose. The Emcee highlights the theme of the event, "Accelerate Action," urging attendees to reflect on women's achievements and the ongoing need for gender equality.
2. Tone: The Emcee opens with enthusiasm and gratitude, ensuring the audience feels engaged from the outset. The introduction also provides a brief overview of the event's structure, preparing the audience for the speeches and performances that follow.

(Emcee by Priyanka from B.com and Monish from BCA)

Welcome Address

A representative from the Women Empowerment Cell delivers the Welcome Address. This portion provides the necessary context and purpose of the event, setting the stage for the topics to be discussed and reinforcing the importance of gender equality.

The Welcome Address is formal and inspiring, reinforcing the significance of International Women's Day and the efforts to continue the work towards gender equality.

Student Speeches

Three student speakers share their thoughts on critical aspects of women's empowerment:

1. Speech 1: "The Role of Women in Today's Society" focuses on how women are breaking barriers and excelling in various fields, demonstrating the need for societal support.
2. Speech 2: "Empowerment Begins with Education" discusses how education is a powerful tool for empowering women and closing the gender gap.

(Dhanushree from BCA discusses how education is powerful for women's)

(Mr. Balagopal PK, Assistant Professor delivering welcome address)

(Hemashree L from BCA spoken about the women empowerment in Kannada)

The event commenced with a warm welcome speech delivered by Mr. Bala Gopal Sir, who highlighted the importance of Women's Day and acknowledged the achievements of women across different domains. His words set an inspiring tone for the occasion.

Each student speech is impact, meant to provoke thought and inspire action. The Emcee provides brief reflections after each speech, ensuring that key points are emphasized and reinforcing the event's theme.

Short Performance

A group of students presents a short performance that celebrates womanhood. The performance highlights the strength, resilience, and progress of women throughout history, visually expressing the essence of empowerment.

The performance is both emotional and inspiring, offering the audience a deeper connection to the theme of women's empowerment through artistic expression. The Emcee encourages the audience to pay attention, acknowledging the performers' efforts and emotional impact after the performance concludes.

(Nithya, Vignesh, Sippu, Roopashree, Preetham from BBA & BCA Performing Skit on Womenhood)

(Yashaswin, Kruthika Priya, Harini performing Skit on Womenhood)

(Students group photo after the short performance)

The highlight of the event was an engaging and thought-provoking skit, which showcased real-life scenarios of women's struggles and triumphs. The performance resonated with the audience, delivering a strong message of resilience, strength, and determination.

Closing Remarks

The closing remarks are delivered by a faculty member or the Head of the Women Empowerment Cell. These remarks reflect on the significance of the event, the messages conveyed, and the importance of continued action towards gender equality.

The remarks are reflective, encouraging the audience to carry the inspiration and lessons from the event forward in their daily lives, reinforcing the call to "Accelerate Action."

(Motivational Speech from Murli S, Principal, MVJ Degree College)

In closing ceremony Principal sir congratulated the organizing committee and the performers for their brilliant contributions. He motivated all the women present by emphasizing that women are the ones who can balance personal and professional lives. He further expressed that woman, in every field, should not only feel empowered but also be an integral part of every activity.

As the event concluded, Ms. Divya, Assistant Professor, delivered the vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all the dignitaries, participants, and attendees for making the event a success. She appreciated the efforts of the organizing committee and encouraged everyone to continue advocating for women's rights and empowerment.

Final Thank You and Farewell

The Emcee wraps up the event by thanking the faculty, speakers, performers, and the audience. The Emcee reiterates the message of empowerment and gender equality, leaving the audience with a final, motivational message.

The Emcee closes the event with gratitude and positivity, encouraging attendees to continue advocating for gender equality beyond the event. The tone is uplifting and optimistic, reinforcing the core message of empowerment.

Outcome

Theme Focus: The celebration emphasizes the theme of "Accelerate Action," ensuring that each section of the event reinforces the importance of promoting gender equality, empowering women, and inspiring action.

Engagement: The Emcee does a great job of maintaining audience engagement throughout the event. After each speech, the Emcee reflects on the key points, creating smooth transitions between each segment and ensuring the audience remains actively involved.

Diversity of Perspectives: The three speeches cover critical aspects of women's empowerment, such as societal roles, legal equality, and education. This provides a well-rounded view of the various factors that contribute to empowering women.

Celebration and Reflection: The performance adds a layer of emotional depth to the event, allowing the audience to connect with the theme of womanhood and empowerment through art. The performance serves as a celebration of women's resilience and progress, as well as a reminder of the ongoing challenges faced by women.

The script for the International Women's Day event successfully captures the essence of empowerment, gender equality, and continued progress. Each segment of the event—whether it's the speeches, performance, or closing remarks—works in tandem to engage, inspire, and motivate the audience. The Emcee plays a vital role in guiding the event, ensuring smooth transitions and keeping the focus on the core theme of accelerating action for women's empowerment. The event leaves the audience with a sense of hope, encouragement, and a commitment to work toward a more equal world where women are respected, valued, and empowered in all areas of life.