Introduction

MVJ Degree College organized GENESIS 2026, the Annual Day Celebration, on 16th July 2026 under the IQAC initiative, coordinated by Prof. Madhurima Bhattacharjee. The programme was conducted with enthusiastic participation from students and faculty members. The event was graced by the chief guest, Dr. Muralidhar S, Dean of Bengaluru North University, and Mr. Balakrishna Aliveli, Principal of MVJDC.

Event Proceedings

1. Reception and Formal Opening

The programme commenced with the arrival and ceremonial escort of the Chief Guest, the Principal, distinguished dignitaries and members of the Management to the dais. The emcees, Kruthika and Yashaswin, welcomed the gathering and introduced GENESIS 2026 as the formal beginning of the first-year students' academic journey.

2. Founder's Video Presentation

A video presentation highlighting the vision, legacy and contribution of the Founder, Dr. M. V. Jayaraman, was screened. The presentation familiarized the incoming students and parents with the institution's history and its commitment to quality education.

3. Lighting of the Lamp and Prayer Song

The ceremonial lamp was lit by Dr. Muralidhar S and Mr. Balakrishna Aliveli, Principal, symbolizing the pursuit of knowledge, wisdom and hope. This was followed by a prayer song presented by Pranav, Tarun and Dishitha, invoking divine blessings for the academic year.

10. Tea Break and College Video

Following the formal session, refreshments were served. After the break, a college video presentation showcased the institution's campus life, achievements, activities and memorable milestones, giving the first-year students an overview of the opportunities available at the college.

11. General Instructions to Students and Parents

Prof. Devika and Dr. Ann Rose Davis addressed the students and parents and provided general instructions regarding academic guidelines, institutional rules and regulations, campus discipline, attendance, responsible conduct and the values expected of students at MVJ Degree College.

12. Department-wise Orientation

After the general instructions, students and parents were guided to the designated seminar halls for department-specific orientation. BCA students and their parents proceeded to Seminar Hall No. 1, while BBA and B.Com students and their parents proceeded to Seminar Hall No. 2. The respective Heads of Departments conducted the orientation sessions and explained programme requirements, academic procedures, departmental expectations and other relevant information.

Key Takeaways

- Students and parents gained a clear understanding of the institution's academic culture, rules and expectations.
- The programme created a positive and welcoming beginning for the newly admitted students.
- The Chief Guest's and Principal's addresses motivated students to pursue academic excellence and responsible personal development.
- The felicitation of academic toppers reinforced the importance of dedication, perseverance and achievement.
- The department-wise orientation enabled students and parents to interact with the respective Heads of Departments and receive programme-specific guidance.

Conclusion

GENESIS 2026 was conducted successfully and provided a meaningful introduction to college life for the first-year students and their parents. The ceremonial proceedings, motivational addresses, institutional guidance and department-wise orientation ensured that the incoming batch began the academic year with clarity, confidence and a sense of belonging.
